

St Margaret's Notebook

June 9, 2011

They say dogs look like their masters.

I have to say my puppy, Maybelline, looks like my old Volvo station wagon - low to the ground, white, long, square bodied.

Her look gets out of whack when she gets scared and the hair on the back of her neck stands up.

Then she looks like a Volvo station wagon with a mohawk.

She had on the mohawk the whole time we walked passed the cows on Monday evening.

The cows were scared and curious as well.

The large, mature ones pretended not to notice
this odd looking puppy standing on her hind legs barking.

The younger cows actually did make eye contact and even walked up to the fence to get a closer look.

The second time we passed the same cows Maybelline didn't seem to notice but they noticed her and followed us, walking with us inside the fence, silently.

"We've got a few companions on the journey, Maybelline."

Before I knew it I was preaching to my dog.

"I remember one time when I was walking on the beach near Charleston and I noticed a dolphin swimming alongside me. When I turned around, the dolphin turned around in sync."

Over the course of our lives we are sent companions on the way -

not just dogs, cows, or dolphins, but wonderful and loving people who walk alongside us,

Maybe they are our companions for only for a short while.

Maybe they walk with us for decades.

All are gifts from God. All point to the presence of God.

Dr. Bob Coe has been walking faithfully alongside the people of St. Margaret's for nearly 50 years now as Organist, Choirmaster, Musician, Staff member, and a cherished friend.

He and Kathy came to Carrollton in the 1960s when West Georgia College was establishing their Music Department.

In the faculty lounge, he got to know The Rev. Don Harrison then rector of St. Margaret's and adjunct Philosophy professor.

"We had about 1200 students then so the faculty became like family.

We had looked around at churches. St. Margaret's felt like home."

I'm guessing the presence of other faculty members at St. Margaret's, like Jim and Liz Matthews and Liz and Wilton Key were part of the attraction.

Dr. Coe will be retiring at the end of July but his music and his love will be forever written on the heart of our parish.

In gratitude,

P.S. We would like to give Bob a purse, a love offering, in thanksgiving for the ways God has been glorified through his music. If you would like to contribute to this love offering, please send a check to St. Margaret's marked as "Gift for Dr. Bob Coe."
