

St Margaret's Notebook

Volume 1, Issue 1

June 28, 2006

From the Rector

As the fourth of July approaches

I am thinking about homemade peach ice cream,
Old Glory hanging by the back door of our house on "thrill hill", and pictures of my daddy and Uncle Smitty dressed in their navy blues.

I really don't know much about Daddy's Navy days

only that the movie, "South Pacific" reminded him of the places
he went and that he brought Mama a grass skirt which she kept in the bottom of the old cedar chest.
And yes, he liked the movie, "PT109"

Whenever I hear "Eternal Father, Strong to Save" -

The Navy Hymn that we sang last Sunday
I think about the "perils of the sea"
and wonder about WWII and my parent's generation.

The "Star Spangled Banner" conjures up images of Mama standing in front of Plantation Cafeteria

one 4th of July parade with tears in her eyes.
She was not one to cry

Maybe she was thinking about her own father.

Maybe she was thinking about mine.

But one thing is for sure, it was freeing for me to see her cry.

On Sunday, as well as on the 4th itself

We will be celebrating freedom at St Margaret's.

Political Freedom. Freedom in Christ. Freedom to remember.

Bring your memories.....

J2A Pilgrimage

The pilgrimage to Italy was a great adventure which created many new and unique bonds. Each day in Italy was a different experience, so it is hard to decide my favorite place or adventure. Each location had a different spiritual feeling and environment. We visited La Verna which was the site of St Francis receiving his stigmata. This site created a feeling very hard to describe. Everyone sat around the site, and for the first and only time of the trip, there was complete silence. This place just took my breath away. The trip to Italy was incredible and will never be forgotten. I appreciate all the chaperones and their patience with us.

Sincerely,

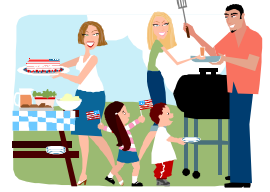

Anna Schoerner

BBQ

Celebrate the 4TH of July at St. Margaret's from 11-1:00 pm.

Main course and drinks will be provided. Please bring a side item (ie salad, slaw, dessert, beans, chips,...). Come watch the parade before at 10:00 am.

We welcome to the household of God
Lillian Weems Powers
on Sunday, June 25, 2006. Lillian is the daughter of Taylor and Jennifer and sister of Sidney.

Mississippi thanks you!

The food boxes from southwest Atlanta have arrived. Sixteen pallets of pre-sorted food boxes! We looked into a half dozen boxes to assess the contents and were delighted to find that reboxing was not necessary. You all did a wonderful job of contents control. This has allowed the Distribution Center volunteers to introduce the boxes directly into the line with no extra work. I am delighted to see the boxes contain shelf stable UHT milk. I know I have it on the food list but we rarely actually receive any as many grocery stores do not stock the item.

Please give our heartiest thanks to all that made this possible. God's people are making a tremendous difference for many families here on the Mississippi gulf coast. In His service,
Bob Montgomery
Distribution Center Coordinator
Christus Victor Katrina Relief

And thank you again, our Stripling Chapel friends!

Shown left, Mrs. Jeanette Henson and Mrs. Homa Archer, representatives from Stripling Chapel United Methodist Church Women, deliver 79 emergency meal bags to St. Margaret's Community Outreach. This is the second delivery from our Stripling Chapel friends, for a total of 151 donated meals for distribution by SMCO. Many thanks, Stripling Chapel Church Women, for your kindness!

Ooops! In St. Margaret's Notebook, May 31, 2006, SMCO incorrectly identified Mrs. Miriam Rhyne (Stripling Chapel Church Women representative) as Mrs. Claudia Rhyne. SMCO apologizes for the error, and again thanks Mrs. Rhyne for the emergency meal bag collection, packaging and delivery.

Thanks to all the children, youth and adults who participated at Community Vacation Bible School last week. A fun time was had by all at "Adventures of the Treasure Seekers". Each day, we "dug in" to the Bible, finding treasure and promise in word of God. The scripture and corresponding promises for each day are as follows:

God Loves You

"The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love."

Psalm 103:8 (NIV)

God Knows You

"God does not see the way other people see.

People look at the outside of a person, but the Lord looks at the heart."

1 Samuel 16:7b (NCV)

God Treasures You

"I am the good shepherd, I know my own and my own know me."

John 10:14

God Forgives You

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

John 3:16

God Is With You

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations."

Matthew 28:19a

Special thanks are owed to everyone who helped make the week such a success, especially Sherrie Brown of Carrollton Presbyterian who served as Chair of the week. We also want to recognize all of the volunteers from St. Margaret's without whom the week would not have been possible: Beth Smith, Erika Uglum, Amanda Reynolds, Lisanne Denmon, Jennifer Powers, Carolyn Cary, Mandy Maierhoffer, Emily Greene, Catherine Lindahl, Shavianjan Thomas, Ariel Reynolds, Aaron Reynolds, William Keene, Michelle Foreman, Elizabeth Crafton, LaTevin Farmer, Pam Cooper, Montavius Mann and Trey Wright.

Thanks be to God!
