From the Rector

Sunday at St. Margaret's was a marvelous day:

Mother's Day, teacher appreciation and Sunday school graduation, homemade biscuits, coffee and fresh fruit, and the Rose Parish Hall set up theater style so all could watch DVD highlights of the past year.

Julie "the Producer" Foreman outdid herself with this year's slide show.

There was the J2A trip to Italy and wonderful shots of baptisms, confirmation, bagpipes, picnics, pumpkins, dinners and parades.

New this year was the use of music recorded by St. Margaret's choir. Outstanding!

St. Margaret's Community Outreach did a section on volunteers.

Catherine is all about "collaborative" ministry. I am convinced that God's hand was instrumental in placing Catherine in the role of director.

Hearts were warmed, evidenced by tears and smiles, as the late Father Jim Callahan's playful spirit danced on the wall.

There was laughter at the sight of Sam Goodson's hair straightening and sighs as the youngest among us grew before our eyes.

Time moves so fast.

I was overwhelmed with emotion – surprise and deep joy – when I realized that Julie had slipped in a section to honor my 5th anniversary as your rector. Then as Julie Cain, the senior warden, presented me with a gorgeous stole - my heart nearly stopped.

But there was MORE!

The last three images:

"First came love" – a photo of Laura and Eric's engagement photo.

"Then came marriage" – a wedding shot...

"Then came babies!" - the ultrasound of TWINS!

Gasps in the parish hall turned to tears and hugs

as we celebrated the gift of new life with Laura and Eric.

It is within community - within the Body of Christ that Easter resurrection is proclaimed and the Spirit of Pentecost felt.

"Let us then together weave our lives as one."

Tapestry of Life stole presented to Hazel on Sunday, May 13 in honor of her 5th anniversary.

Episco-pals is a fellowship group designed for 3rd, 4th & 5th graders at St. Margaret's.
