

St Margaret's Notebook

May 27, 2009

From the rector

As long as I can remember I have been drawn to mysteries.

I was an avid reader of Sherlock Holmes and Edgar Allan Poe.

I spent time with the family watching
TV episodes of The Twilight Zone and "Alfred Hitchcock Presents"

I still get an eerie feeling when I hear the introduction music to The Twilight Zone... or "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen and welcome to Alfred Hitchcock presents."

Speaking of Alfred Hitchcock, you might remember his movies.
Who can forget the Bates motel and the shower scene from "Psycho"
or the mass attack of birds in "The Birds"?

I'll just have to say that the movie "Rear Window" has been on my mind this last week as I have sat with foot elevated so that my broken leg can begin to heal.

Jimmy Stewart was also confined to a wheelchair in the thriller.
His favorite pastime is to spy on his apartment neighbors
through his binoculars.
He ends up witnessing a murder across the way.

The view out of my window was not nearly as entertaining.
I had no murders to solve or even any neighbors to spy on.
Yet, as I watched the crows hopping around outside
I began to reflect on the fragility of life, split-second life changing events as well as the unbreakable and undeniable presence of Christ.
The love of God has been so obvious in the care and prayers of total strangers,
dear friends, and family.

In deep appreciation and with love,

Hayes +

If you speak a foreign language and would like to read please contact Julie Foreman at stmargarets@charterinternet.com and let her know. The reading is John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15. If you need a copy of the reading Julie will email it to you.

Don't forget to wear your Pentecost colors - red or pink on Sunday,

“Our prayer unites us” The intercessory prayer group meets on Wednesdays at 12:00 NOON and is followed by the celebration of the Eucharist at 12:15PM. You are welcome to join us for this very important intercessory ministry. Anyone desiring intercessory prayer, or if you have someone you would wish to nominate to receive the blessing of these prayers, please contact Nancy Elder or Julie. We will pray for people for a period of one month and then we need to be advised if additional time is needed. As it is important to keep this intercessory list current, please plan on advising us when the need for specific prayer for an individual has terminated. This will prevent us from having a long unwieldy list of persons no longer in need.
